

CONTENT & LANGUAGE MANUAL

by Misha Volf,
based on research by Ludi Dai, Eva Hu, Sru Puttreddy

GENERAL INTRODUCTION

The aim of this manual is to specify language and copy for the eduDAO proposal form and the preceding landing page. These recommendations are based on past user research conducted by our team.

The manual presents an organization scheme of the content modules as well as all copy necessary for the proposal submission form. Strategic rationalizations for the methods in which content is laid out in this manual can be found in the previously submitted Content Strategy report.

While the copy recommendations presented here are meant to be authoritative, we also recognize that additional adjustments might be necessary as the design of the interface advances. As such, the recommendations included here should not be seen absolute, but to be finalized in collaboration with the UI designer, to ensure that layout, text, and graphic elements all work together towards a coherent user experience.

I. INTRO

1. Welcome to the Project
 - a. The kinds of projects we're looking for

WELCOME!

Thanks for choosing eduDao!
Before we get started, please take a minute to get familiar with our platform.

eduDAO is a bit different.

We are looking for projects which:

- directly serve youth and lifelong learners in under-served communities
 - aim to make long-term, medium- to big-scope impact
 - have an immediate, material need

- b. Our process (3 steps: proposal, review, campaign)

Our process is also different.

Unlike other crowdfunding platforms, which require lots of setup time, eduDAO breaks the process up into 3 short steps. This makes it more efficient and ensures a more positive outcome for everyone.

1. Proposal
 - Submit a brief overview of the project for review by eduDAO's board of directors
2. Review
 - Board of directors reviews the proposal to make sure the project is a good fit with eduDAO's mission
3. Campaign
 - Once approved, you will build a campaign to tell potential donors a compelling story about your project's goals.

c. Are you a 501(c)(3)?

Just one last thing before we start the proposal:

Is your project associated with a public school or a registered 501(c)(3) non profit organization? (i)

[(i) tool tip:

At this time, we can only accept proposals from these types of organizations]

[yes] [no]

[final call to action]

If all of the above looks good and you're sure that eduDAO is the right place for your project, let's start a new project proposal!

[START PROPOSAL]

II. PROPOSAL

[opening page]

0. Before we begin
(as a pop-up overlay?)

a. Will take a few minutes

The following proposal process will only take a few minutes. Most finish it in 30 minutes or less.

The proposal is meant to give a quick overview of your organization, and to give us a better idea of whether a full campaign for your project is a good fit with eduDAO's mission.

b. What's needed
(profile, materials, mission)

It would help to have the following information handy:

- Basic information about the organization behind the project (address, mission statement, etc.)
 - A short list of materials needed for the project and approximate total cost
- A few statements about what makes your project unique and valuable to your community
 - If applicable, or 501(c)(3) EIN number

c. Let's get started!
